21st Maui Onion Festival TERMS & CONDITIONS

The parties agree as follows:

Whalers Village agrees to provide appropriate space to each vendor. The event allows display, samples and sales of approved items by the vendor.

- Whalers Village reserves the right to accept or not accept each application.
- Foods made with Maui Onion will have a priority in our selection. Creative Maui Onion foods are in great demand!
- Food Vendors must state what foods they are offering. We want to avoid duplication and have an interesting variety of food.
- The Festival will go on rain or shine. Vendor fees are not refundable.
- A $500 (plus tax) booth fee must be paid in advance. Beach front locations booth fees will vary. Please make checks payable to WV Sub, LLC. Checks must be received upon confirmation of event involvement.
- Two 8' tables and two chairs are supplied for each booth.
- Table cloths/skirts are required but not provided. PRIZES will be awarded for booth decorations.
- Vendor can not block traffic, spill into another's space, or display signage that would block vision of another booth. Noise or music must not interfere with Whalers Village merchants or fellow vendors. If there is a problem, alert Whalers Village personnel on duty.
- Vendor must man their booth from 10:00 am until to at 7:00 p.m. You may stay later each day if you wish. Validated parking will be provided in the Main Parking structure.
- Vendor is responsible for the immediate area around their booth, keeping it safe and clean. Vendors are expected to extend courtesy and act in a professional manner.
- Vendor is responsible for your own display and merchandise. You must obtain at your own expense any and all permissions and licenses required by any governmental agency.
- Food Vendors must provide Whalers Village with a temporary Food Vendors permit by April 16, 2010. Permits are issued through Maui Department of Health. Applications will be mailed to you along with your acceptance letter.

MAUI ONION PRODUCT Approved by Screening Committee is REQUIRED at the event. Management will have the right to disallow the sale or display of goods it deems objectionable. Vendors agree to indemnify and hold harmless Whalers Village and GGP Limited Partnership from any losses, damage, claims or expenses, including attorney fees in relation to this event.
